

Franz Amussen

Franz has lived in Utah most of his life and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Economics and Accounting from Utah State University. He has worked for several years in the financial field as an accountant, market analyst, and financial consultant. He has served as an executive board member of the International Visitors Utah Council and is currently the CEO of Amussen, Hunsaker and Associates in Salt Lake City.

Franz was appointed to the Committee of Consumer Services by Governor Michael Leavitt and formally approved by the Senate in 2002. He was later re-appointed by Governor Jon Huntsman, Jr. and approved by the Senate. His term expires July 1, 2010.